

Moho Art Prize 2019

INTERNATIONAL AWARD

MOHO ART PRIZE is an important award given to the best international talents in contemporary art.

Awarded categories: painting, sculpture and installation, photography, new media (video, digital, performance, other).

Applications are reserved for artists under 50 years old. Applications are open to artists of any nationality.

The prize awarded is of the value of 30.000,00 €.

Deadline for sending applications: 12 July 2019

APPLICATION FOR SINGLE PROJECT

The single project must consist of a minimum of 3 works. All the works must belong to the same single project or series. There are no limits to the number of works submitted for the same project.

For evaluation purposes only the single project or series will be considered.

APPLICATION FOR ENTIRE PRODUCTION

All works must belong to the same artist. There are no limits to the number of works presented.

For the purposes of evaluation, all the artist's artistic production will be taken into consideration.

APPLICATION FOR BOTH SECTIONS

Artists can also apply for both sections: single project and entire production. The evaluation will be carried out separately for the two sections.

WINNERS' NOMINATIONS

For each of the 4 categories (painting, sculpture and installation, photography and new media) 2 winners will be nominated. One for the single project section and one for the entire production section.

The nominations will be announced on:

18 October 2019 | nominations for individual projects - all categories

25 October 2019 | nominations for the entire production - all categories

PRIZES

The total of prizes awarded is 30.000,00 €.

Painting category:

- 2.500,00€ prize for the single project
- 5.000,00€ prize for the entire production

Sculpture and installation category:

- 2.500,00€ prize for the single project
- 5.000,00€ prize for the entire production

Photography category:

- 2.500,00€ prize for the single project
- 5.000,00€ prize for the entire production

Other media category:

- 2.500,00€ prize for the single project
- 5.000,00€ prize for the entire production

The award is founded and managed by the MOHO organization.

The MOHO organization, over the years, has established collaborations and partnerships with galleries, foundations, public and private institutions. Collaborations that continue over time and to which are constantly added new and stimulating artistic realities.

MOHO organizes and manages collective and personal exhibitions every year, scattered in different cities in Europe and beyond. It creates new opportunities of collaboration for artists and stimulating work projects for curators and art spaces.

All information about terms and conditions of subscription is published on the official website www.mohoprize.com